SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON THE SITUATION WITH REGARD TO THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DECLARATION ON THE GRANTING OF INDEPENDENCE TO COLONIAL COUNTRIES
AND PEOPLES

REPORT OF THE OPEN-ENDED BUREAU

Chairman: Mr. Utula Utuoc SAMANA (Papua New Guinea)

1. The Open-ended Bureau held its 3rd meeting on 17 June 1997.

1. Question of holding a series of meetings away from Headquarters

2. In connection with the question of holding a series of meetings away from Headquarters, the Open-ended Bureau recalled that the General Assembly, by paragraph 6 of its resolution 1654 (XVI) of 27 November 1961, had authorized the Special Committee to meet elsewhere than at United Nations Headquarters whenever and wherever such meetings might be required for the effective discharge of its functions. By paragraph 3 (9) of the programme of action for the full implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in General Assembly resolution 2621 (XXV) of 12 October 1970, the Assembly had directed the Committee to continue to hold meetings away from Headquarters as appropriate.

3. The Open-ended Bureau decided to recommend that in that connection the Special Committee consider accepting such invitations as might be received in 1998 and that, when particulars of such meetings become known, it request the Secretary-General to seek the necessary budgetary provisions in accordance with established procedure.

2. Representation at seminars, meetings and conferences of intergovernmental and other organizations

4. The Open-ended Bureau proposed that the Special Committee recommend to the General Assembly that the Committee continue to be represented at seminars, meetings and conferences organized by United Nations bodies and other intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations active in the field of decolonization. In keeping with its decision of 16 January 1997, the Committee would authorize its Chairman to hold consultations, as appropriate, concerning its participation in those meetings, as well as the level of representation, when accepting invitations. In accordance with established practice, the Chairman would hold consultations with the Bureau members who, in turn, would consult with the members of the Committee from their respective regional groups. The Open-ended Bureau also recommended that the General Assembly make appropriate budgetary provisions to cover such activities in 1998.

3. Pattern of conferences

5. The Open-ended Bureau noted that, during the year, the Special Committee had closely followed the guidelines set forth in the resolutions of the General Assembly on the pattern of conferences, in particular resolution 51/211 of 18 December 1996. By organizing its programme of work effectively, holding extensive consultations and having integrated the Subcommittee on Small Territories, Petitions, Information and Assistance, the Committee had been able to curtail considerably the number of its formal meetings. The Open-ended Bureau recommended that the Special Committee continue to make optimum and effective use of conference-servicing resources.

6. The Open-ended Bureau decided to recommend that, taking into account the probable workload of the Special Committee for 1998, the Committee consider holding its meetings in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) Plenary

January/February	As required
June/July	Up to 30 meetings (6-8 meetings a week)

(b) Bureau

January/July	20 meetings
--------------	-------------

7. It was understood that that programme would not preclude the holding of any ad hoc meetings that might be warranted and that the Special Committee might, in early 1998, review the scheduled meetings on the basis of any new developments. The Open-ended Bureau recommended that, subject to any directives given by the General Assembly, the Special Committee, while fulfilling its mandate, should strive to keep its meetings to a minimum.

4. Control and limitation of documentation

8. The Open-ended Bureau noted that, during the year, the Special Committee had taken further measures to control and limit its documentation in compliance with the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly, in particular resolutions 34/50 of 23 November 1979, 39/68 of 13 December 1984 and 51/211 B of 18 December 1996. The Open-ended Bureau recommended that, consistent with the goal of limiting documentation, the Special Committee streamline its report to the Assembly.

9. By its resolution 50/206 B of 23 December 1995, the General Assembly approved the recommendation of the Special Committee to replace its verbatim record by summary records. Having reviewed the need for such records, the Open-ended Bureau decided to recommend to the Special Committee that it maintain its summary records.

5. Question of the list of Territories to which the Declaration is applicable

10. The Open-ended Bureau decided to recommend that the Special Committee continue consideration of the question at its next session, subject to any directives that the General Assembly might give at its fifty-second session.

6. International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism

11. Noting that the Plan of Action for the International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism provided for the holding of seminars alternately in the Caribbean and the Pacific regions, the Open-ended Bureau decided to recommend to the Special Committee that it organize in 1998 a seminar in the Pacific region, to be attended by representatives of all Non-Self-Governing Territories.

12. The Open-ended Bureau further decided to recommend that the Special Committee invite United Nations organs, agencies and institutions to apprise the Secretary-General of actions they have taken in implementation of General Assembly resolution 46/181 of 19 December 1991 relating to the Plan of Action and submit a report to the Assembly at its fifty-third session.

7. Participation of representatives of Non-Self-Governing Territories in the work of the Special Committee

13. The Open-ended Bureau decided to recommend that the participation of representatives of Non-Self-Governing Territories in the work of the Special Committee at Headquarters, as recommended by the Plan of Action for the International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism, should continue to be facilitated through the reimbursement by the United Nations of the expenses relating to their participation under the terms of the guidelines amended by the Committee and approved by the General Assembly at its forty-eighth session. In that regard, the Open-ended Bureau decided to recommend that the Special Committee consider the guidelines at its plenary meetings with a view to amending them further, where appropriate.
